Jones Director of Business Development

Katherine Jones joins Spectralux as Director of Business Development, overseeing Sales, Marketing, and Business Development activities. She succeeds Gary Glynn who announced his retirement earlier this year. With more than 25 years leading and managing complex programs, she applies her business development, program management, and analytical expertise to developing solid customer relationships and to defining and executing strategies which best serve customer needs.

Jones' career began as a Systems Engineer with the Boeing Company where she supported a variety of high technology/ aircraft programs including Unmanned Combat Aerial Vehicle, 737 AEW&C, 767 AWACS, and a wide range of proprietary programs/ projects. Jones later joined Honeywell where she successfully led development and certification of critical FAA-certified commercial flight safety avionics systems. Jones has also held director positions at Coastal Environmental Systems and IDD Aerospace.

Jones obtained a B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering from Purdue University, an M.S. degree in Electrical Engineering from the University of Washington, and an Executive M.B.A. from the University of Washington.
